

MARIETTA DAILY LEADER.

VOL. II. NO. 240

MARIETTA, OHIO, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1896.

PRICE ONE CENT

HE BROKE DOWN

And Told All He Knew of the Railway Robberies.

Thousands of Dollars' Worth of Merchandise Taken From Trains.

A Robber Boxed Up and Shipped as Freight—When the Train Was in Motion He Would Emerge From His Box, and Everything Was His.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—By a bit of detective work three men, who are accused of having robbed the railroad companies running out of Chicago of thousands of dollars' worth of merchandise, were Tuesday afternoon locked up at the Central police station.

The men arrested are W. T. Johnson, G. W. Parker and J. C. Miller. The arrests were made by special agents of the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad Co.

During the past year nearly every railroad in Chicago has been victimized.

Detectives were baffled in their efforts to discover the thieves, or trace the stolen goods. Tuesday evening J.
C. Miller, one of the prisoners, broke down and told all he knew of the conspiracy.

He said he had been employed by Johnson. He had been placed in a large packing case at various times and shipped as household furniture.

He was always supplied with food, water and candles, and when the car in which he was shipped was well on its way he would open the case in which he was shipped and, with the aid of candles, would make an investigation of the contents of the car.

Having selected such goods as he wanted, he would fill the large case in which he was secreted, and which was always billed to Johnson.

This done, he would carefully nail up the box, and then, with saws which he carried for the purpose, cut a hole in the bottom of the car. At the first stop of the train he would drop through the hole and make his way back to Chicago.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 7.—A collision

Monday night between a runaway horse and an electric car resulted in the fatal injury of Mrs. Craigmiles.
The horse plunged immediately in front of the motor.

See the Railway Company for Damages.

NORWALK, O., Oct. 7.—John Loux has sued the Columbus, Sandusky & Hoek-ing railroad for $4,000 damages. He was a passenger and his train did not stop at Frank Station. He jumped and fell in a ditch.

GEORGIA ELECTION.

The End of an Exceedingly Heated and Interesting Campaign.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 7.—The contest between the democrats and populists of Georgia for control of the state government was brought to an end Wednesday, when the people of the state voted for governor and other state officers. The campaign has been exceedingly heated, and in many respects interesting, and predictions concerning the probable result differ widely.

Two years ago Gov. Atkinson beat Judge Hines 24,161 votes. Chairman Clay, of the democratic state committee, believes that the plurality will be over 30,000. Chairman Cunningham, of the populist state committee, predicts the election of his ticket, placing the plurality at from 10,000 to 25,000.

Chairman Buck, of the republican state committee, gives out the prediction that the democratic plurality will be greatly reduced and may not be any plurality at all.

Chairman Buck's recent circular urging all loyal republicans to vote for Wright, the populist candidate, and cut down the democratic plurality, gave the contest in Georgia a national character, which it did not otherwise have.

It is believed the democratic plurality will certainly not fall beneath that of two years ago, while it may go considerably higher. How much of a figure Col. Buck's instructions may cut it is impossible to say. Leading republicans believe that it will take 10,000 or 20,000 votes away from the democrats which they would otherwise receive.

Georgia will, no doubt, re-elect Gov.
Atkinson and the legislature to be chosen will send Charles F. Crisp to the senate.

A Democratic Arraignment Republicans.

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 7.—In the common pleas court Tuesday Arnold Green, the leading democrat of the county, complained that the republican committee is herding allens for naturalization. Judge Disette, republican, listened to the complaint, but he said that he could do nothing. Green says that he will not be downed.

A Heartless Mother.

MARION, O., Oct. 7.—Mrs. Christina Ottmiller Monday morning brought her seven-year-old daughter to the probate court and told Deputy Burke to keep her. The child was her first husband's. The little girl was nearly starved. She was sent to the infirmary.

Watson Accepts the Nomination.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 7.—Tom Watson has dictated a letter accepting the populist nomination for vice president.
It is addressed to Chairman Butler, and is a vigorous, incisive document.
Mr. Watson will revise the letter and make it public, probably on Wednesday.

HE IS WILLING.

Arthur Sewall, of Maine, Accepts the Nomination

For the Vice Presidency by the National Democratic Convention.

He Presents His Views on the Money Question—We Must Face a Crisis More Serious Than Any Since the War—To Which Party Shall We Turn?

BATH, Me., Oct. 7.—Arthur Sewall Tuesday afternoon gave out his letter of acceptance of the democratic nomination for vice president. Among other things Mr. Sewall says:

Our people now face a crisis. A crisis more serious than any since the war. To what party shall they turn in their dire emergency?
It is true that the present crisis may not involve all equally; that there are those who do not suffer now and who may not suffer should the crisis threatened by the gold standard come on in all its glory. Human selfishness makes those dead to all appeals, but to these, fortunately, the democratic party has never needed to appeal to win its battles, nor does it now. We are told that the country has prospered under the present monetary standards, that its wealth has enormously increased. Granted. But in whose hands? In the hands of the tollers, the producers, the farmers, the miners, the fabricators in the factories, the creators of the nation's wealth, in peace, its defenders.
Have they prospered? Have they so late as even two years ago. I deny it. They deny it. None affirm it, save those whose interest it is to do so, whose profits would diminish as prosperity returns to those in whose distress they thrive. All is right between capital and capital. The best money in the world is now too good for those who have got it.

But how is it that the majority of the people who got it to get how it is with those who must pay this best money in the world with the products of their own labor? These are the people for whom the democratic party would legislate. What is the best money?
How also can you increase labor's purchasing power but by increasing the price of labor's products? Is it a fair measure to value that in our great producing section, when ten millions of people must be paid dollar for dollar for the products of the soil and the wages of all mine owners at the same ratio. Under the gold standard the appreciation of the best money in the world has increased the wealth of the rich and for the same reason has increased the debt of the debtor. So under the present standard it must continue to be. With these object lessons about us, little need we care for theory and statistics and the studies of scholars.
Little satisfaction, it is to us, that they have warned us long since of the deadly evil of the gold standard. It has brought us at least to the parting of the ways.

Where shall we turn? In the way that has led to their enslavement or into that which offers them the chance to regain individual liberty, lasting prosperity and happiness? Let not our opponents charge us with creating class distinctions. As for the republicans, they are already charged by the republican policy of the last 30 years: created by the very system we would now overthrow and destroy. Nor do we raise a sectional issue. The nomination you tendered repels the charge. Non-know better than I that this nomination is meant as no personal tribute, but as an assurance that our party is a non-sectional party.
Not by our policy, but only by the continuance of gold standard can sectionalism be revived. Neither shall our opponents be permitted to terrify the people by predictions that temporary disturbance or panic will come from the policy we propose. The American people will be loyal to the nation's money, will stand behind it and maintain it at whatever value they themselves may put upon it. Once before in the present generation have our people been called to face a momentous crisis. What then, said Mr. Lincoln, the chosen leader of the plain people of the land.
Was he awed by threats or weakened by the wily persuasion of false friends, who pleaded for compromise with wrong? His answer was:
"If our sense of duty forbids this, then let us stand by our duty fearlessly and effectively." Let us be diverted by none of these sophis-tical contrivances whereby we are so industriously placed and be laborers: contrivances such as groping for some middle ground between the right and the wrong reversing the value rule and called not the sinners, but the righteous to repentance, such as invec-tions to Washington, imploring men to say what Washington said and undo what Washington did.

The free and unlimited coinage of silver is the sole remedy by which to check the wrong of to-day; to undo the ruin of the past and for our inspiration we have the justice of our cause and those cherished principles of Jefferson and Jackson, which shall be our guide in our return to power.
Equal and exact justice to all men: Non-absolute acquiescence in decisions of the majority, the vital principles of the republic, the honest payment of our debts, and sacred preservation of the public faith.
Profoundly sensible of the high honor of the nomination you tender, I am truly yours,
ARTHUR SEWALL.

THIS MONTH

Important Developments in Connection With Venezuela Will Occur.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—Information has been furnished to the United Associated Presses that no communication has passed between Great Britain and the United States on the subject of arbitration in over a month. Important developments in connection with Venezuela, however, will probably occur within the month of October. A settlement of the dispute is by no means imminent, and it is not true, as has been alleged, that Great Britain is making concessions to Venezuela.
Much depends upon Mr. Chamberlain, secretary of state for the colonies, who sailed from New York for England on September 30, though his desires in the matter are subject to the approval of Lord Salisbury. The latter, the foreign office officials say, is hopeful that the arbitration question will be soon solved, but he is at present very much occupied with the eastern question.

Connecticut Election Returns.

HARTFORD, Ct., Oct. 7.—Returns from each of the 163 towns that voted Monday show that 109 went republican, 22 democratic and 31 divided. A number of the divided towns were really carried by the republicans, as the contest was on the board of selectmen. Monday's results show a republican gain of 11 towns.

Treasury Gold Reserve.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—The treasury gold reserve at the close of business Tuesday stood at $125,380,036. The day's withdrawals at New York were $90,400.

WAR TALK.

The St. James Gazette Says There is "No Use in Crying Peace"—Venezuela's Attitude Toward England is Insulting.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—The St. James Gazette devotes a leading article to discussion of the Venezuelan situation, in which the paper insists that no progress whatever has been made toward a settlement of England's dispute with Venezuela. The paper recites the Venezuelan affronts and outrages perpetrated upon English officials, and concludes by saying:

If such insults and outrages had been addressed to the meanest sister republic in South America there would have been war long ago. Any other European power would not have stood it a week, yet we sit with folded hands and permit one slap in the face to succeed another. We hope most sincerely that the negotiations with the United States will result peacefully, but nothing is to be gained by shutting our eyes and crying "Peace" where there is no peace.

The Gazette adds that Venezuela's attitude in regarding the construction of a railway to the Barima as a violation of Venezuelan territory, is an insult.

ON HIS DEATH-BED

He Confessed That He, and Not His Brother, Was the Guilty One.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 7.—Mrs. C. Turner, of Detroit, called at the state prison Wednesday to make a peculiar request of the board of managers. She wants L. A. Packard, who is serving a 15-year sentence for assault in Pul-ton county, released on the following statement:

She says her first husband's name was Lucien Albert Packard. He was a twin brother of the prisoner, whose name is Louis Alfred Packard. Her husband died in 1892, and she says that he told her on his death bed that he committed the crime for which his brother is serving a sentence.

ENGINES COLLIDE.

Two Killed and Four Persons Seriously Injured in Consequence.

ALBANY, Ore., Oct. 7.—Two engines collided on the Southern Pacific at Green's station early Tuesday morning, killing two persons and injuring four others. The dead: Fireman Mc-Gonigle, of Portland; Brakeman Toigh.
The injured: Engineer Porter, Engineer McCauley, D. R. Wall and Brak-man Lewis. The collision was due to a misunderstanding of orders.

Miners Gathering at Columbus.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 7.—Delegates to the state convention of miners, which met here Wednesday afternoon, came in slowly. A light attendance is promised. The miners seem to be fully as determined against reduction of wages as the mine operators are that there must be a reduction, or they will shut down their mines. It is likely that they will not agree and that the mines will be shut down for a time at least.
It will throw about 15,000 miners out of employment.

Two Killed and One Injured.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Oct. 7.—Ninety miles east of here on the Quinimont Short line, a branch of the C. & O. railroad, the engineer lost control of his train Wednesday morning on a steep grade, and the engine and 12 cars were totally wrecked. Engineer S. P. Brown and Fireman W. I. Gordon were fatally injured. The conductor is in a critical condition.

Killed by Her Lover.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Oct. 7.—An Italian girl was killed by her lover, John Frank, also an Italian. The affair occurred near Hillville, Pa., a short distance from here. Frank asked the girl to marry him and she refused. He then shot her through the heart with a revolver and escaped.

Striking Quarrymen Will Cause Trouble.

ELYRIA, O., Oct. 7.—The striking quarrymen at Grafton armed themselves with clubs and stones and created some trouble. They are holding secret meetings and threaten to blow up the non-union men in their houses.
The company is continuing work in the quarry.

Fire Losses Less Than Last Year.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—The Journal of Commerce says that the fire loss in the United States and Canada during September amounted to $28,000,550. The record of 1895 to date shows a total which is about $8,000,000 less than the figure of the same period of 1895.

A Victory for Hawkins.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—The fight between Del Hawkins, of California, and Joe Gans, of Baltimore, at the Bohe-mian Sporting club Tuesday night, resulted in a victory for Hawkins, who was given the decision at the end of the fifteenth round.

Took Too Much Morphine.

MARION, Ind., Oct. 7.—Mrs. John H.
Vance, of this city, took an overdose of morphine to relieve neuralgia and died from the effects. The deceased was 45 years old and leaves a husband and three children.

Killed in an Election Riot.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 7.—In an election riot at Elberton Wednesday morning, Will Mayfield shot and killed Bud Sanders and escaped. Tom Wall shot and seriously wounded J. G. Swift.
All are white.

Pioneer Preacher Dead.

WARREN, O., Oct. 7.—Rev. Edwin Wakefield, a pioneer minister of northern Ohio, died at Greene Wednesday, aged 78 years. He leaves one son, Prof. E. B. Wakefield, of Hiram college.

A Tornado Reported in Oklahoma.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 7.—A disastrous tornado is reported south of Edmond, Okla., Wednesday morning, in which several persons were injured.
Particulars difficult to obtain.

STATE BOARD

Of Veterinary Examiners Decide That College Diplomas Will Not Admit of Practice.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 7.—The state board of veterinary examiners met here Tuesday. The board has heretofore honored all diplomas from reputable colleges without examining those presenting them. It has been found that some of the colleges held to be reputable by the board are not regarded as such by the State Association of Veterinary Physicians. Tuesday a new rule was adopted which requires all applicants for certificates to submit to an examination, whether or not they have diplomas from reputable schools. It will create a furor. The board elected officers for the year as follows: President, W. W. Miller, of the state board of agriculture; secretary, Prof. J. Delmers, of this city; treasurer, W. B. Smith, of Basil.

OBJECTIONS FILED

Against the Admission of the Sound Money Ticket on the Ballot.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 7.—The state democratic executive committee filed a protest against admitting the sound money or national democratic ticket to the ballot with the state supervisor of elections Tuesday. It is based on the ground that the name is so similar to that of the regular democratic party that it is likely to give rise to confusion. There is a state law against this. Secretary of State Taylor took the protest under consideration.

Ohio's Poll Not Finished.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 7.—Assistant Secretary Jennings, of the republican state executive committee, says that there is no truth in the statement sent out from Chicago to the effect that "the first poll of the state made by republicans showed a majority for Bryan." He says that there has been no complete poll of the state made by the committee, and he claims republican gains in the counties heard from.

The Miners' Meeting.

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 7.—General Manager Woodford, of the W. & L. E. railroad, said Tuesday of the meeting of coal operators and miners at Columbus Wednesday: "I believe that the men will see the folly of the position and live up to the agreement, providing for a cent differential. The price for mining Ohio coal will be 45 cents, and if the men do not accept the scale they will be locked out."

Found Her Husband Dead.

ZANESVILLE, O., Oct. 7.—When Mrs.
Oliver H. Perry awoke Tuesday morning and shook her husband to awaken him she was horrified to find that he was cold in death. Mr. Perry was 82 years of age.

Typhoid Fever Closes Schools.

CAMBRIDGE, O., Oct. 7.—At Dyson, a village five miles south of here, the schools have been closed on account of the prevalence of typhoid fever. Every precaution is being taken to check the disease.

The Y. M. C. A. at Salem.

SALEM, O., Oct. 7.—The annual conference of the Western Reserve and Pan-handle districts of the Y. M. C. A. will convene at Salem, O., October 9.

Died of Apoplexy.

MIAMI, O., Oct. 7.—Dr. T. V.
Lyons, aged 68 years, vice president of the Citizens' national bank, died Tuesday afternoon of apoplexy.

Double Fatality From Coal Oil.

LANCASTER, O., Oct. 7.—In attempting to hurry a fire by pouring coal oil into the stove from a lamp, Mrs. Jacob Strawn and four-year-old son, living near Pickerington, this county, were fatally burned.
